PRESS RELEASE

Date: June 19, 2017

SCINT Case Number: SC17-101

Crime(s): Supplying Contraband, Unlawful Possession of Methamphetamine, Delivery of Methamphetamine.

Persons Involved:

Yarnell-Ross, Angelica
48 YOA Coquille Res.

Narrative:

On Thursday June 16, 2017 at approximately 1600 hrs, SCINT Detectives conducted a traffic stop on a vehicle operated by Angelica Yarnell-Ross. The vehicle was stopped on W. 4th Street in Coquille. The traffic stop stemmed from an incident on May 26th 2017 when Yarnell-Ross attempted to smuggle a bar of soap that was hollowed out concealing a bag of methamphetamine into the Coos County Jail.

While Yarnell-Ross was being interviewed by Detectives, Coquille Police Department's narcotics K-9, Kara, alerted to the presence of methamphetamine inside the vehicle. During a subsequent search of the vehicle, officers located a small bag containing suspected methamphetamine and $925.00 in US currency. The methamphetamine and currency were seized by Officers.

Angelica Yarnell-Ross was arrested and lodged at the Coos County Jail on the above listed charges. While being searched at the jail, Deputies located additional methamphetamine hidden in Yarnell-Ross's clothing.
