PRESS RELEASE

SCINT Investigation Results in 81 Month Sentence

Coquille, Oregon December 10, 2014 Pamela Sue MILLER was sentenced to eighty-one months in prison.

The sentence flows from an investigation initiated by SCINT detectives in March of 2013. SCINT detectives learned Miller was selling methamphetamine from a secluded log home perched on 93343 Easy Creek Lane, Coos Bay Oregon.

Utilizing surveillance, a volume of short stay traffic consistent with drug dealing was documented in relation to Miller's home. Over the course of several months, Miller sold various quantities of methamphetamine to SCINT agents. During these transactions, Miller discussed having other dealers she supplied methamphetamine, the fact she purchases a pound of methamphetamine, guaranteed quality and could obtain as much methamphetamine as she desired. At the conclusion of the investigation, Detectives learned that Miller had immediate access to large amounts of cash, and had been dealing very large amounts of methamphetamine over a significant period of time.
