PRESS RELEASE

Reynolds Sentenced to Ten Days

Coquille, OR October 6th, 2014 Marilyn Delia Reynolds was sentenced to ten days in jail after entering a conditional guilty plea.

The sentence stems from the assistance of SCINT to Coos County Parole and Probation during a home visit in January 2014.

In January, 2014 Coos County Parole and Probation requested the assistance of SCINT to respond to Michael Hockema's residence at 93298 Luscombe Loop in Coos Bay. It was reported Hockema, who was on formal probation at the time, was dealing heroin from the location.

Reynolds answered the door of the residence and while law enforcement spoke with Hockema, Reynolds entered the room and attempted to conceal drug paraphernalia.

SCINT conducted interviews of Reynolds, Michael Hockema and a juvenile female.

SCINT detectives searched the residence with the assistance of a Confederated Tribal Police officer, a Coquille Tribal Police officer and a drug detection K-9. Throughout the residence marijuana paraphernalia was located in addition to heroin use paraphernalia.

Reynolds was charged with Unlawful Possession of Heroin and Frequenting a Place Where Controlled Substances are Used. On September 16th, 2014 she entered a conditional guilty plea to both charges.

SCINT is partially funded by the US Department of Justice, Community Oriented Policing Services and the US Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, Bureau of Justice Assistance. The funding is provided through the COPS Methamphetamine Initiative (40%) and Congressionally Selected Awards Program (60%).

Per Oregon Sentencing Guidelines and current Coos County Jail capacity, Reynolds was sentenced to ten days in custody, followed by eighteen months formal supervision.
